Cohen's Lottery &amp; Exchange Office.

HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, January 3, 1822.

Drawing begins Next Month.

The demand for tickets in the MONUMENT LOTTERY continues very spirited, and evinces the estimation in which the people hold the memory of WASHINGTON. The Managers duly appreciate the encouragement given to the sales and will regularly progress with the drawing of the lottery, commencing on the 22nd of next month. The first drawn Number will be entitled to THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS, and for which, as customary, the CASH can be had at COHEN'S OFFICE, the moment it is drawn.

Adventurers holding small prizes in the Grand State Lottery, will please forward them to Cohen's Office, Baltimore, when the Cash will be immediately remitted per the return mail, or the amount will be invested in the Monument Lottery, if directions are given to do so.

Companies or individuals who purchase from COHEN'S OFFICE, Tickets or Shares to the amount of Fifty Dollars, in the Monument Lottery, will be furnished with the Register, which will contain the Managers' official account of each day's drawing. Those who wish the Register will please signify the same when they send on their Orders, which are to be addressed to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.

Sec'y to the Managers—Baltimore.

United States Bank.—The following gentlemen have been appointed by the President of the United States, with the consent of the Senate, to be directors of the Bank of the U. States on the part of the government for the ensuing year, viz:—Langdon Cheves, John Connelly and Pierce Butler of Philadelphia; James Wilson of Baltimore, and Ch: E. Dudley of Albany.

Counterfeits.—Counterfeit $100 bills, purporting to be of the Franklin Bank of Baltimore, dated 1st Dec. 1819, are in circulation. We are credibly informed, that but a very small amount of genuine $100 notes of that date, were issued by that Bank, most of which have since been returned and destroyed. As several of the counterfeits have been received in some of the Banks of this city, the public are cautioned not to receive notes of the above denomination on the Franklin Bank without a strict scrutiny, the general appearance of the counterfeits being such as to deceive persons even familiar with the genuine bills. They are in imitation of the plate of Murray, Draper, Fairman & Co. and are astonishingly well executed.

Counterfeit notes of the denomination of $100 of the Planters' and Mechanics' Bank of South Carolina, are in circulation—the engraving remarkably well executed, of the letter A. dated 12th January, 1818, payable to M. G. Gibbs, the signatures and figures done with a stiff hand, the paper inferior.

APPRENTICES' LIBRARY.

The New-York Gazette remarks, that the exertions which have been made on this side of the Atlantic to ameliorate the condition of Apprentices, have excited and animated European philanthropists to pursue the same laudable course. Both in France and Great Britain, our example is producing practical effects. In Paris, the Address of Solomon Southwick, Esq. delivered at the opening of the Apprentices' Library in Albany, has been translated into the French language, republished and highly extolled, as a literary and benevolent production. A gentleman in New-York has received an application for a copy of it from the celebrated British patriot Mr. Wilberforce. Thus an American mechanic, who in early life was a baker's boy, has been instrumental in improving the minds and contributing to the happiness of thousands of European youth in the same humble sphere as that from which he has emerged. Mr. Southwick was not only an apprentice to the trade of a baker, but afterwards a common sailor, and subsequently a journeyman printer in New-York and Philadelphia. Yet he is now noticed in the European world as the eloquent assertor of the rights of humanity, as applicable to that numerous class of young men, who in every country are doomed to a certain degree of servitude. It gives us pleasure to award this tribute to the merit of a brother printer.

The Treasurer of New-Jersey.—It has lately been published in all the newspapers, on the authority of a report of a committee of the Legislature of New-Jersey, that the Treasurer of that State, Col. Gordon, was a defaulter to the amount of $20,000. Presuming this to be the fact, although he could no way account for it, the honest old guardian of the treasury surrendered to the state all his hard-earned property, and that not being sufficient the sureties were called upon also. It now turns out, that it is all a mistake, and that instead of the venerable treasurer being a defaulter, the State is indebted to him about four thousand dollars!

Latest Foreign Intelligence.—The British sloop of war Hind, capt. Burroughs, arrived at N. York, bringing London papers to the evening of the 11th of November. Their contents are not very important.

The King of England had returned to London, and was received, as a matter of course, with much pomp and parade. He did not visit Paris; but while at Calais, on his return, his majesty was waited upon by the Duc d'Angouleme, at the Hotel Bourbon. The inhabitants of Calais paid great respect to the British King. Preparations were made for a royal visit to the theatre, and every part of it was crowded to excess; but much to their disappointment the King embarked the same evening for the fast-anchored Isle. He was cheered in the English style by multitudes assembled at the pier where he embarked.

As a proof of the flourishing state of the iron trade, the Chester Chronicle states that the consignments for Liverpool, Manchester, &c. (via Canal) have for some time past greatly exceeded those of any other period for many years.

Several letters from capt. Parry's Arctic expedition have been received. Their prospects are represented as flattering.

The Lord Mayor's Day was held on the 9th of November. A sumptuous dinner was given, at which several of the royal family, and many of the nobility attended. Great harmony prevailed.

Letters from Barcelona, to the 24th October state that there is now a prospect that they will be soon free from the fever with which they have been so severely afflicted.

From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

THE BRITISH SLOOP OF WAR.

The arrival of a British sloop of war with dispatches, being rather an extraordinary event in these piping times of peace, considerable speculation was afloat soon after the Hind was announced, as to the special object of her visit. Some very wise people, who look deeply into millstones, were quite sure that the ports had been opened for the reception of foreign corn, and no doubt, by circulating their surmises, lightened many a heart for the moment, with an idea of getting speedily rid of a bad bargain. The following, however, is a true account of the matter.

One of the Chief Clerks in the Navy Office, London, having absconded with a considerable sum of money, and sailed for New-York, the British sloop of war Hind was despatched in three hours notice from Portsmouth, with a letter from the Marquis of Londonderry to his Majesty's Consul in this city. The ship arrived at three o'clock on Tuesday afternoon—the officer delivered the despatch to Mr. Buchanan at half past 4, just as he was sitting down to dinner—fearing that the arrival of the vessel direct from Portsmouth, might excite some alarm, the Consul immediately repaired to our magistrates of police, Joseph Hedden and Jas. Hobson, Esqs. who promptly accompanied him, without waiting for an officer, and traced the unlucky fugitive, found him, and obtained nearly all the property, near 100,000 dollars.

THE ALLIGATOR'S PRIZE.

BOSTON, Dec. 25.

Arrived the Portuguese ship Mariana Flora, Ventura Ariadete di Breta, master, from Bahia, of and for Lisbon, with a cargo of sugar, cotton, hides, tobacco, &c. ordered to this port by the U. S. sch. Alligator, capt. Stockton, for an attack upon the flag of the U. S.; now under the command of Lt. Abbot. On the 5th Nov. lat. 20, lon. 30, the M. Flora was discovered by the Alligator, standing to the N. & E. She soon after tacked to the S. and as the Alligator neared her, she clewed up her courses, handed her top-gallant-sails, and hoisted a small blue pennant half-mast, at the main-top-gallant-mast, a signal of distress. It was supposed on board the Alligator that she was in distress, and she accordingly run down for her, under a press of sail; but was surprized by the discharge of the broadside of the ship, when within a short distance of her. She kept up a firing for nearly an hour, in a raking position, before a single gun was fired from the Alligator. All this time, the flag of the United States was flying on board the A. and the ship was without any national flag displayed. The Alligator, at the expiration of about an hour from the first attack, commenced firing on the ship, and continued the same till she was within pistol shot of her, on her quarter, when her whole broadside being ready for a discharge, capt. Stockton hailed the ship, to know who and what she was, and whether she had any national flag or not. No answer was returned, but a few minutes after the Portuguese flag was run up at the mizen, and two guns were discharged at the Alligator after the flag was up.—Capt. S. then hailed the ship, saying if they did not cease firing, and send their boat on board the schr. he would sink her. The crew of the ship then deserted their quarters and the captain soon after came on board. For this attack on the flag of the U. S. Capt. Stockton thought it his duty to order her to this port for trial.
